

Scoileanna Ildánacha Creative Schools

CA development training

Session title

Supporting equality of participation: Considerations when facilitating artistic and creativity planning in schools and Youthreach centres.

Dates

Held online on 18 and 25 August 2021

Partners and support

Thanks to Arts and Disability Ireland \(ADI\), and guest contributors: Jazz artist Emilie Conway, and Pádraig Naughton, Executive Director of ADI

Resources

Here are the links to some of the resources referred to in the presentations and discussion:

- Emilie Conway's video: It All Works Out arising from her project with St Colmcille's SNS
- The Smashing Red Kite show and 'fun-size jazz' series produced by the Improvised Music Company \(IMC\) and the Ark
- Emilie Conway Sings: Alec Wilder; about Alec Wilder
- You Won't Forget Me: Centenary celebration of Maeve Brennan
- Music for Mondrian podcast from the National Gallery of Ireland
- Royal Hibernian Academy \(RHA\) learning and engagement and tours for the visually impaired; Eamonn Doyle exhibition
- Push+ European transnational cooperation project
- Push+ resources page for Different Bodies pillar
- Ways of Seeing by John Berger
- DADA campaign
- UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities
- Mind the Gap: research on barriers to the realisation of rights of children with disabilities in Ireland, from the Ombudsman for Children's Office in conjunction with the Centre for Disability Law and Policy at NUI Galway

- National Framework for Children and Young People's Participation in Decision-Making
- Arts Council Equality, Human Rights and Diversity policy
- Arts and Disability Ireland (ADI) – Strategic Plan 2017-2021
- ADI 'Meet an Artist' interview series
- From Access to Inclusion symposium
- Arts and Disability Connect Scheme